

I urge the FCC to continue regulating broadband service so that an independent ISP, such as Bershire.Net, is able to continue to provide the excellent service I value.